Description: General Motors has decided that a defect which relates to motor vehicle safety exists in certain 2026 - 2027 model year Cadillac VISTIQ vehicles. The third-row seatbacks in these vehicles can be commanded to power fold into the stowed position with a single press-and-release of the "down" control button located in the cargo area or on the pillar adjacent to the seat. The seatback stops and does not automatically reverse if it encounters an obstruction in the seat.

CARFAX Vehicle History Report for this 2026 CADILLAC VISTIQ SPORT: 1GYC3NML2TZ706144

Smaller occupants could become trapped under the seatback, increasing the risk of injury.

Remedy: Until replacement parts are available, vehicles in inventory at dealerships MUST have the third-row folding feature disabled. Additionally, owners who wish to do so may opt to have the third-row folding feature disabled. When replacement parts are available, the folding feature will be reinstated and updated through a separate customer satisfaction campaign.

 Glossary

First Owner
When the first owner(s) obtains a title from a Department of Motor Vehicles as proof of ownership.

Manufacturer Recall
Automobile manufacturers issue recall notices to inform vehicle owners of a safety defect or failure to meet minimum federal safety or emissions standards. Manufacturer recalls are repaired at no cost to the customer.

Ownership History
CARFAX defines an owner as an individual or business that possesses and uses a vehicle. Not all title transactions represent changes in ownership. To provide estimated number of owners, CARFAX proprietary technology analyzes all the events in a vehicle history. Estimated ownership is available for vehicles manufactured after 1991 and titled solely in the US including Puerto Rico. Dealers sometimes opt to take ownership of a vehicle and are required to in the following states: Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania and South Dakota. Please consider this as you review a vehicle's estimated ownership history.
